TWO MEN CREMATED.

Third One So Badly Scorched He Soon Expired.

OTHERS ARE BAD OFF

Parties Who Fell Victims to Wrath of the Flames, Caused by an Intoxicated Sailor, Were in Room Thirteen.

New York, Sept. 30.—Two men were burned to death as they slept, a third is so badly burned that he died in a hospital, another is in a dangerous condition and several others suffered seriously, but probably not fatal injuries, in a fire in the two-story saloon, restaurant and lodging house at 221-223 West street. The men who lost their lives occupied room 13, in the rear of the building. They were overcome by smoke and burned to death in bed. All occupants of the house were sailors or longshoremen. Those who suffered death and injury were suffocated and burned within a few minutes. The fire was extinguished before the damage exceeded $3000. The dead are:

John McMahon, thirty years old, longshoreman, burned.

Robert Vaughan, twenty-two years old, longshoreman, burned.

William McClelland, thirty-two years old, sailor, escaped from room with clothes on fire, died in hospital.

The fire is believed to have resulted from the carelessness of a drunken sailor, who is known to have entered a stairway to the upper floor, early Saturday morning. The first known of the fire was outside, when McClelland, his clothes on fire, dashed down the stairs from the lodging house and ran into the saloon. The bartender threw his apron around the flaming man and finally succeeded in smothering the flames. McClelland was so badly burned he died within an hour. Four of the lodgers, who was unable to reach window, had a narrow escape from death in the flames. They made their way to the roof of the building through the skylight, only to find the burning building separated them from those adjoining by chasms a dozen of feet in width on both sides. None of them dared attempt to leap, which might have landed them safely on another roof or sent them crashing to death on the stone paved court below. They were surrounded by flames, and the roof upon which they stood was scorching their bare feet when their plight was called to the attention of firemen and they were rescued.

MISSISSIPPI LAUNCHED.

Another Monster Fighting Vessel in Navy of Uncle Sam.

Philadelphia, Sept. 30.—Special interest attached to the launching of the battleship Mississippi at Cramps' shipyard, since she will carry the smallest displacement of any United States battleship now being built with the exception of her sister ship, the Idaho.

Miss Money, daughter of United States Senator Money of Mississippi, christened the vessel, the ceremony taking place before a vast throng to-day.

The displacements of the Mississippi and Idaho are each 13,000 tons, while all the later battleships, including the Vermont, Kansas and Minnesota now building in other shipyards, have a displacement of 16,000 tons. The Mississippi will be the equal of many battleships of 16,000 tons displacement, and no vessel of same displacement in the navy of nation carries equally as heavy batteries. The main batteries consist of four twelve-inch breech-loading rifles, mounted on two turrets; eight eight-inch breech-loading rifles, in four turrets; eight seven-inch breech-loaders, behind basement armor, and two twenty-one-inch submerged torpedo tubes.

The Mississippi is 375 feet in length on the water line and length over all is 382 feet, with an extreme beam of seventy-seven feet. Speed requirement is seventeen knots.

The ship will be equipped with triple expansion twin screws of 10,000 indicated horse power, fitted with eight Babcock and Wilcox water tube boilers and a set of water tight compartments.

Except for the windlass and steerage gear practically all the other machinery will be run by electricity. A wireless telegraphic apparatus will be installed. There will be commodious quarters provided for the crew of 750 officers and men, with special attention paid to sanitary needs.

LANDLORD'S REMORSE.

Thought He Had Killed Party Removing Trunk and Suicided.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Victor Walkowski was detected by his former landlord while he was trying to remove his trunk through a window. He fired three shots at the man, and believing he had killed him ran to the street and shot himself twice in the head, dying instantly. Walkowski is nineteen years old, and until last Monday boarded with Frank Garowski. He fell behind in the payment of his board and left the place, the landlord holding his trunk as security. Walkowski was not injured.

THEY FORMED A POOL

This Was Done In Order to Attend to Legislation

WEST OF OHIO RIVER

It Was Testified That Mr. Hamilton Looked After Interests of the Equitable, New York Life and Mutual.

New York, Sept. 30.—When the legislative committee on the insurance investigation adjourned Friday until Tuesday, it concluded a week in which greater progress had been made than any week since the investigation was begun. Testimony of witnesses that have been called during the week have been replete with sensation and Friday was no exception to the rule.

It was during the afternoon session when Alfred Maine, an assistant auditor of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, was called to the stand that it was disclosed that the Equitable Life, the Mutual Life and the New York Life had formed a pool to look after legislation before the various state legislatures.

Andrew Hamilton, to whom President McCall of the New York Life paid several checks, the purpose of which the counsel for the committee, Mr. Hughes, has not yet brought to light, was one of the chief members of the legal staff for those companies and was employed and received money for the services of the Equitable. Mr. Maine told of the division of the country to be looked after. Mr. Hamilton, in conjunction with E. L. Short and W. P. Thummel.

Witnesses presented vouchers for moneys paid by his company to Mr. Hamilton, and those showed that in eight years from 1885 to 1903, the sum of $65,596 was paid to Mr. Hamilton for legal services. Mr. Maine could not give any details of the duties performed by Mr. Hamilton, nor of the committees he appeared before beyond that Mr. Hamilton looked after legislative matters for all three companies in the states west of Ohio.

Witness told of an agreement whereby special counsel was employed by one company in its territory and the expense was shared by all. He was asked if campaign contributions came under his observation, and he replied that they did not. He never heard of money being paid to influence legislators. He was excused, but will be called again to submit transcripts of accounts giving information he was unable to supply.

He was followed in the afternoon session by Edward T. Devlin, the real estate manager of the New York Life, for the United States and Canada. Mr. Devlin was called to testify as to the cost of the building at Paris. He had only the transcripts for the reports his department made to the home office, but it was brought out that the Paris building was carried on the books of the company at a valuation of $1,102,604, whereas, with the original cost and improvements to the building, actual money to the amount of $2,553,107 was paid, over $1,000,000 being charged off the valuation on the books of the company.

AGAINST FOREIGNERS.

Fifty Thousand Bengalese Assemble and Swear Before Goddess.

Calcutta, Sept. 30.—Fifty thousand Bengalese assembled at Temple Kalighat, and swore by Goddess Kali to boycott British goods as protest against partition of province of Bengal. Administrative work of the province, according to views of the home office, indicating the government had grown to such unwieldy proportions as to necessitate division of labor, hence the partition of the province into two lieutenant governorships. Bengal is intensely resentful of what she characterizes an attempt to split population and impair Bengalese nationality. At scores of meetings throughout Bengal the people pledged themselves to support the boycott, which received the sanction of the priests. The scene at Temple Kalighat, the greatest in Bengal, was striking, when the immense assemblage took the oath "in the holy presence of the goddess Kali not to use foreign goods, buy articles in foreign shops when available in native shops or employ foreigners on any work that can be done by our countrymen." The high priest then placed a mystic vermilion symbol on the forehead of each of those who took the oath. Foreign firms already are feeling seriously the effect of the boycott.

Holman Says Quarantine Guard Shot Him, Police Blame a Negro.

Memphis, Sept. 30.—P. R. Holman of this city was found near Bridge Junction, Ark., suffering from a gunshot wound in the neck. He told the police that a quarantine guard had shot him. The guard denies the statement and the police say that Holman was shot by a negro, probably for the purpose of robbery. Holman, who is well known, is seriously wounded.

INCREASED COTTON RECEIPTS

G. S. Parker Talks of the Heavy Cotton Movement and The Eagle's Special Edition.

In conversation with an Eagle representative yesterday Mr. G. S. Parker gave some interesting figures regarding the heavy cotton movement as indicated by the records of his office for the years 1904 and 1905 up to Oct. 1. Mr. Parker ginned last year up to Oct. 1, 2253 bales; and this year to the same date he has ginned 2204 bales. The Lawrence warehouse weighed last year up to Oct. 1, 5450 bales, and to date this year has weighed 5509 bales, an increase of 3059 bales.

Mr. Parker believes the bulk of the cotton is already in, and that from now on the movement will probably show a steady decrease. He says Ryan has weighed more cotton this year from Leon, Madison and Grimes counties than for two years past, and that the people say they get a much better price here than elsewhere. In this connection Mr. Parker gives the Eagle's trade edition much of the credit for the results this year in putting the advantages of Bryan as a trading point properly before the people of this and adjoining counties in a timely and practical way.

"Hooligan in New York" pictures a phase of life in a bag city that excites the interest of all and is full of sensational scenes, original comedy situations and thrilling climaxes, says a press notice. It comes to the opera house October 4. Scenically the production is unusually elaborate, five complete sets being carried.

Supt. J. J. Ray requests the Eagle to announce a meeting of the Anti-Cigarette League at Carnegie Hall this afternoon at 8 o'clock. A full attendance of the membership is desired.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

Mr. W. C. Boyett's store at College Station was destroyed by fire between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday morning together with his entire stock of merchandise. His son, Mr. Wirt Boyett, was sleeping in a room in the store and awoke barely in time to save his trunk and escape before the building collapsed. The postoffice was in the building and was also destroyed, but all of Mr. Boyett's postoffice records and supplies, and his railroad reports, etc., as agent, also his cotton seed business papers and accounts, together with all cash was in the safe and was recovered after the fire. Mr. Boyett's store books and accounts were not in the store and were destroyed. His loss on building and stock will foot up $5000.00, with only $2000.00 insurance. He received on Friday $1000.00 worth of new goods, which were also burned. The origin of the fire is unknown, but Mr. Boyett is of the opinion that it was of incendiary origin and that robbery was intended. The knob of the safe door was broken off. Sheriff Nall visited the scene yesterday but was unable to discover any clue. Mr. Boyett announces that he will rebuild.

Law Henderson left yesterday for Houston where he has formed a most favorable partnership for the practice of law with Stanley Thompson under the firm name of Thompson & Henderson. Mr. Henderson is a graduate of the law department of the State University, and for a year or more has been in the law office of his father, Mr. Sam R. Henderson of this city. He is scholarly and capable and the Eagle feels confident he will achieve success in his new field of labors.

W. E. Sheffield had the serious misfortune to get his lower jaw bone broken on both sides by a fall on Fannin street near his home Friday night. In some manner his chin struck the hard ground and the force of the fall was so great as to break the jaw bone in two places. Dr. Raynor attended to the injuries and Mr. Sheffield will have to wear bandages for sometime. Meanwhile he is able to take food only in liquid form, and is unable to speak.

We want your grocery business. A trial order will convince you that we will treat you right. Our stock is fresh and complete. Fresh shipment Blankets' candles. Try a sack of Eagle flour—it has no superior. Everything sold under guarantee. Higgs & McCulloch.

P. H. Arrington, Walter Knox and J. W. Batts, commissioners appointed to partition the Harrington estate near Millican, spent the past week looking over and appraising the property.

J. B. Andrews and family have moved to Houston. They left for that city last night. Mr. Andrews expects to be here at intervals for some time.

Marriage licenses have been issued to J. D. Ganter and Miss Mary Winnifred Daly, Sim Cross and Sarah Sweeps.

Search For Druggist.

Boston, Sept. 30.—State and city police were understood Saturday to be searching for a druggist in connection with the Winthrop suit case tragedy. This druggist, who is said to have been missing about a week, is thought to answer closely the description of the man who bought from Pawnbroker Joseph Berkman the suit case in which the Torso woman was found. The druggist is alleged to be associated with physicians who have been suspected of irregularities.

The Little Details

SCHLOSS BROS. & CO.
Fine Clothes Makers
BALTIMORE NEW YORK

TEN yards of cloth and a mile of thread isn't the whole story of a good suit—not by several thousand stitches.

It takes tailoring brains, in plenty and mighty clever craftsmanship to make clothes in the right way---the SCHLOSS way.

Further than this, the looks and life of the suit depend more on the little details than you could imagine. For instance, simply the placing of the buttons and the shape of the lapel have everything to do with the final appearance of a coat, while such a trifle as the proper moulding of a curve makes all the difference between a beautiful garment and a mealsack.

If you could take an X-Ray glance at the interior of a Schloss coat you'd find the same careful attention to details as you see outside. Linings, stays and paddings---the framework of the structure---are made to wear, not merely to sell.

The result of all this care is a finished garment that looks and is extraordinarily good. It fits that way too, and wears that way as a matter of course. An occasional pressing makes it keep that "new look" indefinitely.

We handle the Schloss line because we know there's none better and never found any as good. We have all the new styles and shapes, of course, in the most desirable colors and patterns.

Some of our Suits and Top Coats cost $12; others $15 and $20.

Come and look at them.

CURES CATARRHAL DEAFNESS.

One Week's Use of Hyomei Did More Than Six Months' Treatment by Specialists.

The popularity and increase in the sales of Hyomei are unique in the annals of medicine. Such astonishing cures have been made by this remedy that the proprietors have authorized E. J. Jenkins to sell every package of Hyomei under an absolute guarantee that it will cure catarrh. If it does not, the purchaser can have his money refunded by E. J. Jenkins.

Hyomei is no ordinary remedy. It is the only method of treatment that send by direct inhalation to the most remote part of the air passages, a balsamic air that destroys all catarrhal germs in the breathing organs, enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone, and makes a permanent and complete cure of catarrh.

The complete Hyomei outfit coats but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a life-time, and if one bottle does not cure, an extra bottle of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents. It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only one that follows Nature in her methods of treating diseases of the respiratory organs.

Breathe through the inhaler for a few minutes four times a day, and your catarrh is cured. That's all. If not cured, E. J. Jenkins will refund your money.

MURDER OF CONDITTS.

Negro Boy Under Arrest Has Made Several Conflicting Statements.

Edna, Tex., Sept. 30.—The terrible murder of Mrs. J. F. Condit and her four children has aroused the citizens of Jackson county as never before. The negro boy, seventeen years old, Hanks, alias Monk Gibson, now in jail, is the only person, so far as known, who saw or knew anything about the tragedy while it was being enacted, and he has already made several conflicting statements.

The heads of Mrs. Condit and the two oldest boys were crushed, while the throats of the little girl and the youngest boy were cut, their heads being almost severed from their bodies. An adze grubbing hoe was used upon Mrs. Condit, while a crowbar was used upon the two boys at work repairing the wire fence about 150 yards from the house.

In the last statement made by Gibson to County Attorney McCrory, he described quite accurately the position of the dead woman, the girl and the little boy at the house. Nothing could be gotten from him concerning the dead boys found in the field. He was plowing about 200 yards from the house, when he says two negro men came to him and made him go with them to the house, where the murder was perpetrated.

He gave the names of two negro men who were at work for white men miles distant all day Thursday, and they were evidently not guilty. He stated that after the murders at the house were finished the men ordered him to go back to his plowing. From there, the plow, he went to John Diggs' house, and thence to the rice field to apprise Mr. Condit of the awful fate of his family.

The funeral of the family took place at 3 p. m. Friday. They were all interred in the same grave. A large crowd attended.
